

HEROES HONORED — Two Mack Trucks, Inc., helicopter pilots were honored for their rescue of three youths trapped on the Lehigh River last summer by the Jones Quigg American Legion Post No. 739 of Hokendauqua last night. Post Commander William Bandura hands Mary Price, head of Mack's aviation division, a certificate of appreciation for the rescue. Pilots Deckert Goetz (center) and Peter Sweeny received American Legion Outstanding Heroism awards. The honors were bestowed during the post's annual Veterans and Awards Banquet in Coplay Saengerbund last night. The pilots also were honored later by the Whitehall Emergency Squad in Allentown's Italian Club.
